Declaration of organiser agreement

1. Messe Düsseldorf provides the organiser with the opportunity to organise a group stand at the above event. Nonetheless, the organiser is subject to the Terms and Conditions of Participation of the respective event. The organiser is entitled to organise the following group stand:

2. The organiser applies for _____ m² floor space in accordance with the conditions of participation. The organiser has no right to a particular stand location and/or size. This contract cannot be rescinded.

3. Regarding participants interested in exhibiting at the aforementioned location as first-time exhibitors, the organiser shall ensure that all necessary information is transmitted to Messe Düsseldorf via the online application or a separate "Application as a participant in a group participation" with Form F. Messe Düsseldorf will verify eligibility and, upon completion of the review, inform the organiser of the decision. Only those participants who have been verified and classified as eligible can become exhibitors and may be assigned a space at the location by the exhibitor. The organiser shall inform Messe Düsseldorf of the size of the space rented from the organiser by each individual exhibitor. No later than the event application deadline, the organiser shall transmit this information to Messe Düsseldorf in the form of a list specifying the respective numbers of square metres.

Regarding participants interested in exhibiting at the aforementioned location as existing exhibitors, the organiser shall ensure that they are marked in the list provided by Messe Düsseldorf (PDF file or online via the Easy Administration Tool). In the case of events taking place every three or more years, only those participants shall be considered existing exhibitors who participated in the most recent event. In the case of events taking place every two or fewer years, all participants who participated in either of the last two events shall be considered existing exhibitors.

4. The contractual relationship between Messe Düsseldorf and each individual participant exists by way of the organiser serving as a proxy. The organiser shall be solely responsible for obtaining the necessary authorisations.

Participating exhibitors must comply with the Terms and Conditions of Participation of the aforementioned event, including the Technical Guidelines and Messe Düsseldorf's data protection policies. The respective terms and conditions can be accessed at Messe Düsseldorf's website www.messe-duesseldorf.de and the individual event-specific websites hosted by Messe Düsseldorf. Alternatively, they can be obtained at and from Messe Düsseldorf.

5. The organiser is entitled to use Messe Düsseldorf or event trade marks and titles in order to promote the participation of the exhibitors. Use for personal purposes is not permitted.

6. The organiser is obliged to co-operate with Messe Düsseldorf and third parties authorised by Messe Düsseldorf in order to ensure that organisational procedures are adhered to. The organiser shall ensure that group stand participants will not prematurely abandon their stands while the trade fair is still in progress. A stand shall be considered prematurely abandoned if – during opening hours for visitors and before the end of the trade fair – it is no longer staffed, if exhibits have been removed or packed or if stand inventory has been dismantled or removed. Should a group stand participant prematurely abandoned their stand, then the organiser shall be liable to pay Messe Düsseldorf a contractual penalty of € 1,500. A further contractual penalty of € 1,500 shall be payable for each additional group stand participant who has prematurely abandoned their stand. The overall contractual penalty that is payable by the group stand organiser shall not exceed the amount of € 15,000.

Düsseldorf
15/03 – 17/03/20

7. The organiser is obliged to fully reveal to the individual participants the prices which Messe Düsseldorf invoices to these participants for services supplied.

All prices are exclusive of German VAT.

8. The organiser is required to pay the space costs and any multi media fees for participants on the group stand. These are payable once the participants have been officially admitted to the show. The organiser pays all costs incurred by the group. Pursuant to the "Special Terms and Conditions for Participation" the organiser will receive an advance payment invoice for technical services appropriate for the event.

9. The participants in the joint stand will be given the right to order free services from Messe Düsseldorf independently (Internal: type K).

10. At the request of the organiser, Messe Düsseldorf shall set up user groups of participants in joint stands. Depending on their classification, the participants in the joint stands will have the possibility of themselves ordering services from Messe Düsseldorf – in their own name and for the account of the organiser – using the respective OOS password. The following classifications are possible:

- Participants can order all services – (invoicing will be to the organiser – Internal type G)
- Participants can order services to a limited extent (entrance vouchers/parking tickets/press pigeonholes) – (invoicing will be to the organiser – Internal Type V)

11. The organiser shall receive from Messe Düsseldorf a number of free exhibitor passes – in accordance with the size of the exhibition space – as per the terms and conditions of participation as well as 2 further free exhibitor passes per participant in the joint stand; these are for forwarding to the participants in the joint stand.

12. All claims of the organiser – with the exception of liability in the event of malice aforethought – against Messe Düsseldorf become obsolete within 6 months, starting from the end of the month in which the last day of the event occurs. The place of performance and jurisdiction for all mutual obligations is Düsseldorf or, at the request of Messe Düsseldorf, the jurisdiction of the organiser. This also applies to actions under the Bills of Exchange/Cheques Act. The law of the Federal Republic of Germany has jurisdiction over these regulations. The German text is binding.
